Camper Expectations

COUNSELOR IN TRAINING

Purpose:

To make great new friends and have loads of fun while learning all aspects of the counselor role and experience limited participation in that role, in a resident camp setting, with actual campers.

Responsible to:

CIT Unit Leaders

Expect to:

1. Be a cool role model for younger campers.
2. Have fun observing many different camp positions up close and personal.
3. Get hands-on experience.
4. Actively participate in all educational sessions; complete all assignments in a timely manner.
5. Report promptly to campsite, all-camp, and unit opportunities, giving assistance as requested by the Unit Counselors, or Campsite Leaders.
6. Help maintain high safety standards and quality programming.
7. Be surprised by how much you can learn having fun!

Prerequisites for success:

- Burning desire to be a camp counselor for the Girl Scouts of Greater Atlanta
- Ability to work on a team
- Ability to laugh – a lot
- Ability to follow directions and obey safety rules
- Basic ability to help lead younger campers in their activities
- Good health and stamina necessary to live and work in a camp setting, and walk all over camp on rough terrain
- Minimum age 15 years or 10th grade
- Registered Girl Scout

I have read this summary and understand what I should expect as a member of the 2009 CIT program. I will do my best to cheerfully and successfully complete this training with the help of my CIT Unit Leaders and other CITs.
